

Democracy – the Burkinabé Way

- regarded from a civil society point of view

Leader and founder of the alternative school Benebnooma in Koudougou, Koudbi Koala is an experienced organizer. He will analyse the process which has led to free political elections in Burkina Faso. He will draw perspectives for the future for Burkina Faso and neighboring countries. He will look at Burkina Faso's role in international politics, e.g. how the country at various levels deals with the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals.
